

Imagine you are interviewing an Afar child about living in the Danakil Depression. What questions would you ask? Write your questions on the clipboard below.

A large, light gray clipboard with a white clip at the top. The clipboard contains a white sheet of paper with five dark blue rectangular boxes arranged vertically, each containing a white number from 1 to 5. These boxes are intended for students to write their interview questions.

Feedback